

1st row: The action of sending the same message indiscriminately to a large number of people, to the annoyance of the receivers.

2nd row: The use of irony to mock or convey contempt towards a certain idea

3rd row: The gaseous envelope surrounding the earth or any celestial body

4th row: An agreement between a buyer and a seller to exchange goods or services

5th row: The action of abducting someone and holding them captive against their will

6th row: Exposed to the possibility of being attacked or harmed, either physically or emotionally

7th row: A public place where a wireless signal is made available so that the Internet can be accessed 8th row: An automatic device that uses error-sensing negative feedback to correct the action of a system. Usually employed in modern car steering.

9th row: The way in which two or more people or things are connected

10th row - clue 1: A person that rents from someone who is also renting the same property

11th row: A case or container that is replaceable with another similar part. Used frequently in gun handling or printers.

12th row: To grant someone the permission or power necessary to do a certain action.

13th row: A statement or proof that something is true or that an arrangement or meeting is certain

14th row: Medical care given to a patient for an illness or injury

10th row - clue 2:

