

Custom Location Example

This page uses custom directory structure

This example demonstrates custom file locations in pdfbaker. The template file is in a custom directory (`other_templates/`), the page configuration file is in another custom directory (`other_pages/`), and the document configuration uses a path-based page reference with custom location.